

The Boulder Valley Gifted and Talented (BVGT) Parent Liaison Network has its first meeting of the year coming up on Monday, September 10, and we are seeking new BVGT Parent Liaisons. Do you like to build connections and facilitate communication? Have you considered being a BVGT Parent Liaison?

BVGT Parent Liaisons form a link between BVGT and local school communities. At our monthly meetings, we exchange information about BVGT events and other timely local opportunities. We also present and discuss relevant current topics affecting our gifted students. We are striving to build a network of well-informed and engaged parents who can offer a parent perspective to BVGT, gain knowledge and experience from our monthly interactions, and, in turn, become a resource to other parents within your own school communities.

This school year, our Parent Liaison Network meetings will be held on the 1st or 2nd Monday of the month at the Meadows Branch Library (4800 Baseline Road, Boulder, CO 80303). The timing of the meeting fluctuates between lunchtime (12-1:30 p.m.) and after school (4:30-6 p.m.). Please look carefully at the times listed for each date, because it is not an alternating schedule.

We have many schools which are not currently represented by a BVGT Parent Liaison. If you'd like more information about becoming a BVGT Parent Liaison for your child's school, contact us at parents@bvgt.org. We recognize that the timing of these meetings may not work for everyone's schedule, so if you are interested but cannot attend meetings at these times of day, please still contact us to let us know of your interest, as we may be able to make other arrangements.

We are looking forward to connecting with you!
